General Order 25-01

NATIONAL DAY OF MOURNING

)

)

In honor of James Earl Carter, Jr., the 39th President of the United States, President Joe Biden signed an executive order declaring a National Day of Mourning and the closure of federal agencies and departments. For the National Day of Mourning, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Oklahoma will be closed on Thursday, January 9, 2025 until noon. While the Court is closed, attorneys may continue to submit documents through CM/ECF, and pro se filers may continue to submit documents through the Electronic Document Submission System (EDSS), Electronic Self Representation (eSR), and the drop box located outside the clerk's office.

SO ORDERED this 6th day of January, 2025.
